TIPS & HINTS

1. Read the guidelines and instructions carefully and follow them.
2. Start your application at least a week before the deadline and give yourself plenty of time to prepare your materials. Don't wait until the last minute to submit. Submittable slows down from high traffic in the hours before the deadline. We do not accept late applications.
3. Write and save your application in a word processing program. Copy and paste the text into Submittable when you are ready to submit.
4. A discipline statement (50 words or less) describes your artistic practice. It can be as simple as "I am a poet" or give a more detailed explanation of your practice. You will also be asked to select a disciplinary category. A list of our disciplinary categories can be found above on page 3.
5. A biography (150 words or less or up to 3 minutes of video/audio) tells your story as an artist. It provides details about you and your work, such as where you were born or grew up, your training, career development, accomplishments, or other information that may not be found elsewhere in the application. This can be in written, video, or audio format.
6. An artist statement (350 words or less or up to 5 minutes of video/audio) is an introduction to your work or a specific body of work. It gives an overview of its concepts, ideas, and themes. It may include information about how your work developed, why you have created it, your vision, influences and inspirations, your philosophy of art-making, and other details that introduce your work. A strong artist statement is clear and specific, captures your speaking voice, and avoids clichés and jargon. This can be in written, video, or audio format.
7. Work samples are the most important part of your application. Include your strongest work. Make sure your work samples are well-documented, cohesive with your artist statement, and follow the work sample guidelines.

See the Work Sample Guidelines on page 7 for more information. Upload your work samples in the order you'd like the panel to review them.

8. An artist résumé (5 pages or less) is an overview of your professional experience, accomplishments, education, training, and other information about your artistic career. It's much like a job resume, except its focus is your art. The résumé must be submitted as a .pdf file.

9. The impact statement (150 words or less) explains how this award will make a difference for you. What will the funding and recognition do for you, your work, and your practice? How will you use the money?

10. Take advantage of our support services and resources listed on page 5. You can find examples of each component of the Fellowship application in the reference guide at artisttrust.org.

11. Watch the How to Apply to 2023 Fellowship Awards pre-recorded webinar here.

12. Have a friend, colleague, or another artist review your application before you submit.

If you have questions about your application, the guidelines, your eligibility, or anything else, give us a call or email. Our contact information is on page 8.

WORK SAMPLE GUIDELINES

You may submit work samples in audio, video, image, and manuscript formats. The works in your samples should have been created within the past 5 years. Review the guidelines for information on file types, sizes, lengths, and total number of work samples. We do not accept physical artwork in any format, slides, or files sent via email. All work samples must be submitted within your Submittable application.

If you are submitting multiple file formats, you may submit no more than 10 files. One image is equal to one minute of video, audio, or manuscript page. For example, you can submit a single 10-minute video, or 10 images, or 10 manuscript pages. Or you can submit a combination. For example, you can submit 2 minutes of a video, 5 pages from a manuscript, and 3 images—these equals 10 work samples.

The total amount submitted must equal no more than 10, which may not necessarily be how many files you upload.

To respect the panelists' time, samples submitted over the maximum allowed will not be considered. Links to third party websites, such as SoundCloud, Vimeo, and YouTube, are not accepted.

This means individual files cannot exceed 400mb, and in total, your application cannot exceed 800mb.

WORK SAMPLE DESCRIPTIONS

You may add Work Sample Descriptions as metadata when uploading each file. A window will pop up once you have uploaded the work sample. Work sample descriptions should include: title, materials, dimensions, time, or pages, and the year work was completed. Also, use the description to clarify your role (e.g. cinematographer, lighting designer, "I'm the second to the left in this image."). You may include a short (1-2 sentence) description of the work.

WORK SAMPLE ORDER

Submittable orders your files in the order that you upload them.

SELECTION PROCESS

Selection Criteria

All applications are reviewed by one multidisciplinary panel consisting of five artists from across the state with expertise in a range of artistic disciplines. Panelists review all eligible applications online through Submittable and meet to discuss applications and recommend recipients. Panelists are asked to review all applicants through a lens of racial equity and consider geographic diversity, highlighting a range of disciplines and practices. The panel selects the recipients based on:

- Artistic excellence
- The background and experience of the artist
- Artist's continued dedication to their artistic practice

RACIAL EQUITY

Background

Artist Trust is a nonprofit organization that helps Washington State artists of all disciplines thrive through direct support, connections, and advocacy. We believe a fair and just society ensures artists of all backgrounds and identities are included in its cultural narratives.

Artist Trust Racial Equity Statement

Artist Trust is committed to becoming an anti-racist organization, and to working against the systems of racism we have inherited, upheld, and perpetuated. We know we are not there yet. Black, Indigenous, and people of color (BIPOC) have been systematically oppressed, and we are committed to partnering with them to eradicate white supremacy throughout our organization and to support historically marginalized artists across Washington State.

Artist Trust recognizes that Black and Indigenous people experience more barriers and less opportunities than other people of color. We use the term BIPOC (Black, Indigenous, and People of Color) to acknowledge this reality.

Read more about our work towards racial equity here.

Selection Panelists

Selection panelists are chosen by Artist Trust staff and represent a range of practices, ages, genders, geographies, ethnicities, and stages in their careers.

Panelists are kept confidential until the announcement of the awards.
